Led by

Remi de Roo, Bishop Emeritus of Victoria Canada. Remi participated in all 4 sessions of Vatican 2. Since his retirement he has travelled widely recalling the event and its role in today's world. He is passionate about a renewed vision of the universal church.

And

Pearl Gervais is an educator and business woman who has taken the role of the laity in the world and the church to heart.

As co-workers they witness to the collaboration of women and men, as well as lay and cleric. They have presented together for many years offering workshops and retreats in parishes, religious and secular organisations and academic institutions.

Advance booking if possible and donations welcome.
